

Adult Book Discussion

With Guest Speaker Chris Sturdevant

Following our discussion of the book,
“The World between Two Covers: Reading the Globe”
By Ann Morgan

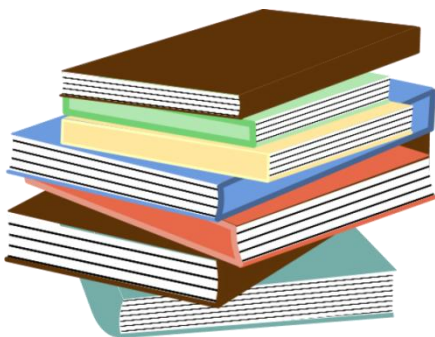

Chris Sturdevant, of the Waukesha Public Library, will speak of his experience of visiting North Korea where he has traveled to run a marathon! He'll take us behind the scenes surrounding this isolated and enigmatic nation. Chris Sturdevant, who finished second in the 2015 Pyongyang Marathon, will come and share his personal experience and impressions with us after our book club discussion.

Sturdevant is deeply interested in the Cold War and its ramifications on our world today. He has spoken at length on Cold War matters on behalf of the Cold War Museum in Washington D.C. He has represented TEAM USA in World Masters Athletics Track & Field Championships in Finland, Hungary and Canada. Sturdevant is a Library Associate in Waukesha Public Library's Children's Department and a graduate of Carroll University.
